State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, N. F. "Red" Lyon has always believed in the obligation of a citizen to contribute however possible on whatever level to the political processes in this state and nation; and,

WHEREAS, Putting beliefs into practice, Red has served the people of his community and the larger community of South Dakota in many capacities, among them as a local school board member for 20 years, as a county school board member for 10 years, as a member of the Governor's Commission on Elementary and Secondary Education in 1969 when South Dakota's schools were reorganized, as a member of the South Dakota Senate from 1965-1966 and as a South Dakota Representative from 1967-1968 and again from 1981-1984; and,

WHEREAS, Over the years, Red Lyon has made substantial and lasting contributions in education, transportation and water development, and South Dakota is a better place because he chose to enter public life; and,

WHEREAS, Red has decided against running for another term, and the Perkins County Republicans will honor him on October 20 for his years of dedication as a public servant and friend; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of Red Lyon's many contributions to the people of South Dakota through his tireless public service:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 20, 1984, as

N. F. "RED" LYON DAY

In South Dakota, and I join Red's wife Margaret, their seven children, the people of the Twenty-Eighth District and the people of South Dakota in thanking Red for his hard work on our behalf.
